Over a Hundred Entries for the Grand American Handleap on Wednesday and Thursday - 85,500 to Ba Divided Br-twees the Pourteen Highest Gues, What promiess to be the greatest live bird tournament ever held in America will begin at Elkwood Park, N. J., to-day. This tournament, which is held under the auspices of the Inter-State Association, is to American experts what the international meeting at Monte Carlo is to European wing shots, as it annually draws the poters from all sections of the country to New York to compete in the main event, which is known as the Grand American Handleap,

The tournament will last three days, and the Thursday, to-day being devoted to sweepstake While the management were delighted on Saturday night with a paid-up entry list of 93 shooters, which eclipsed anything they had thought possible, they were more than astonished yesterday when they received by mail nine additional entries, which brought the grand total up to 101, or within one of the Monte Carlo Grand Prix enter list record of 102. That the European entry list will now be goes without saying, as a number of additional entries are expected between now and the sec-end round of the Grand American, when the time for post entries expires.

With the exception of the redoubtable Capt.

Brewer, George Work, Joe Knapp, and Edgar G. Murphy, about every well-known wing shot in America is entered. Yesterday the Handicapping Committee, consisting of Jacob Pentz, completed their labors. While the hands caps were supposed to range from twenty-five to thirty-three yards, owing to the absence of Brewer no one has been placed on the extreme limit mark. On the 32-yard mark now-ever, will be found J. A. R. Eliott and Frank Class. Last year Elilott killed all of his birds from the 33-yard mark and won second money, while Class also killed all of his birds from the 32-yard mark and took third place, J. G. Messner winning first place on the shoot-off. Messner winning first place on the shoot-off. Messner, who got to on the 25-yard mark last year, has been placed on the 29-yard mark now. While Fred Hoey, E. D. Fulford, and Fred Gilbert divide the honors on the 31-yard mark. G. S. McApin, the well-known club man, is heavily handicapped at 30 yards. Dr. G. V. Hudsen is placed at 27 yards, and should stand a good chance. Phil Dsly, Jr., who recently killed 142 out of a possible 150 birds, gets in at 28 yards, along with Fred G. Moore of the Laronmonts. Capt. A. W. Money will stand at 29 yards, and W. S. Edey of the Westchester Country Cub at 28 yards, "Wanda" (Mrs. M. F. Lindsley) comes in on the 25-yard mark, while Annie Oakley, the only yards.

The conditions of the Grand American Handicaps were supposed to range from twenty-five cther woman entered, is handicapped at 27 yards.

The conditions of the Grand American Handicap are: Twenty-five live birds, handicaps from 25 to 33 yards, 50 yards boundary, with a 33-yard dead line; $1.000, divided into 50, 30, and 20 per cent. for the three high guns. The extra money will be divided as follows: 12, 12, 10, 10, 10, 8, 8, 8, 6, and 5 per cent to the fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh, eighth, ninth, tenth, eleventh twelfth, thirteenth, and four-teenth highest guns. The winner will also receive a handsoms silver cup presented by the Messrs. Phil Dair, senior and junior. A full list of the entries, shooting order, and handicaps follows:

YACHTING.

Che Lurge Stature Recall in Race and the Moxaco, March 23,-The race between the large raters, which was sailed yesterday and resuited in the Britannia practically drifting resailed to-day, and was won by the Ailsa. The weather was fine and a light breeze was blowing when the yachts crossed the starting line Ing when the yachts crossed the starting line. The Britannia had the lead at the start, with the Satinita in second position, and the Alias last. Hefore the first round was divished, however, the Alias passed both of her competitors and held the lead to the end of the race, finishing eight minutes ahead of the Britannia and sixten minutes before the Satanita.

The second race between the Stephanis and Mr. Ogden Goolet's Samphire was won by the Stephanic.

Mr. A. J. Drexel, Ir. has sold the steam yacht Margarita to Mr. H. Walters of Baltimore. Mr. Drexel's new Margerita is expected to be ready to leave the Clyde in June.

Bay Shoris, L. I., March 83.—The Pentaquit Corinthian Yacht Club was organized at this place least Saturday night, with a charter membership of seventeen. The club members own aixteen boats, including seven sloops, one launch, one twin screw naphths, five estboats, and two steamers. The club is already planning for a home of its own to be built near the bay.

Atken, S. C., March 23 .- A foursome handicap, match play, for cups presented by J. E. Thayer, was started on Friday and Saturday, and eleven pairs were left in for the final to-tiay. A. H. Fenn and J. E. Thayer, scratch, were ited with F. H. Hitchcook and George Smith, handloap sixteen, at the end of the sighteen-tola-rounds. In the play off, at nine holes, Fenn and Thayer won by two up and one to play.

BARRBALL.

The New Yorks Fat in a Hard Day's Work at Jacksonville. JACKSONVILLE, March 23. The first and secand teams of the New York Club played a dou-ble header to-day. The weather was by far the best that has favored the boys, and as a result they got in a good hard day's work. With such weather as they had to-day, and by playing two games a day, the boys will more than make up for lost time, and will leave for home in great

From the spectacular standpoint neither of the games were very exciting, both being far too one-sided. The regulars simply played with the young bloods in the morning game. After the first inning the colts never were in the hunt. and they couldn't even get close enough to make things interesting. Only seven innings were played, but in that time all hands had plenty of good hard work. Capt. Gleason's men devoted their attention to team play, and for a beginner they worked together very well. In fielding Van Haltren, Wilson, and Pfeffer car-beginage they worked together very well. In fielding Van Haltren, Wilson, and Pieffer carried off the paim. Wilson's throwing to bases was excellent, and five of the colts were nailed trying to steal on him.

None of the youngsters showed up well, especially in the forenoon game. Their work was loose, and errors occurred with alarming frequency. Stanhope and Mulligan were both away off. The little fielder has fallen off greatly in the last three or four games, and on the form he has been exhibiting lately his chances of remaining in New York this year are very remote. Stanhope's throwing to bases was wretched. He is far too slow for League company, and unless he takes a brace he will never get out of the minor league class. None of the pitchers, with the exception of Kagey, let out their arms in the morning game. The new man was wild, however, and was not nearly so effective as on his last appearance. German stayed in four innings for the colts, and he was batted for thirleen safe hits. Manager frwin made several important changes in the make-up of the teams in the second game. Fred Pfeffer was put among the youngsters and hayed short, Mulligan going into left field. Gleason was brought in from the outfield and put on second, Stafford taking his place in left garden. The changes worked so well that the teams will probably play this way until they are ready to start for home. Both sides did better work in the afternoon seance. The regulars, however, did such vicious stick work that the youngsters were weary when the game ended. Bowen started in to pitch for the second team, and in the first four innings he was hit safely twenty-one times for as many runs. Seymour, who relieved him, did better, bolding the regulars down to seven hits. But two of the youngsters' hits were gotten off Dad Clarke, the reat being made off Meekin. In the two games Harry Davis got eight hits, including a homer and two doubles, out of eleven times up. The secores:

PATON WINE THE PIRST TIR.

Second Experts Open the Handless Tour sey of the Macquet and Tennis Club, The first-class handicap racquet tourney among members of the Racquet and Tennis Club opened auspiciously yesterday afternoon. As an interesting sequel to the championship series it promises to make a popular hit, especially if the subsequent matches furnish such lively sport as marked the contest between the first pair. M. S. Paton, who made such a bold bid in both the racquet and tennis championship ties, was again in evidence, and this time he contrived to assert himself, but only after a keen give-and-take match with F. L. Henry. The clab critics were deeply interested in the outcome, and despite the adverse weather the following were present:

S. K. Deforest, E. Relly, F. Lamontagne, Jr. J. M. MacDomogn, J. G. McNell, R. A. Peabody, E. W. Jew Ht. Lasse, Fownsond, E. Carter, J. H. Smith, W. A. Thomson, John Crievron, H. V. Day, S. P. Blagdien, J. J. M. Green, D. S. Van Emburgh, W. Laimbeer, and D. C. Clarke.

A. Green, D. E. van Emburgh, W. Laimbeer, and D. C. Clarke.

Paton had to face an arduous task, but he outclassed his opponent on service in the first game and increased his allowance of two aces to fifteen while his outponent was resolving eight with the big pull of an extra hand. Paton again secred in the second game with steady runs on service, but Henry then struck his gait and ran out the next two games in fine style.

The deciding game of the rubber was short and swest. Henry scored once, and then went out, but his next efforts at service were fruitless, and Paton equalized the score. A bunch of half a dozen aces, chiefly on all-round play, put Henry away shead, but after each man went in and out scoreless. Paton get possession for a dashing run of twelve, which won him the game and rubber. The scores:

Boston's Representatives for the Court Tennis Champtonship.

BOSTON, March 23.-G. R. Fearing, Jr., L. M. Stockton, and P. S. Sears of the Boston A. A. will play at the Racquet and Tennis Club of New York next week with E. A. Thomson and New York next week with E. A. Thomson and probably B. S. De Garmendia of the latter club, for the amaicur court tennis championship of the United States. The Boston men will go to New York on Friday night so as to have a few days' practice before the opening of the tournament, April 1. Tom Pettitt, the instructor at the B. A. A., will also go on this week to help in the practice. Last year the court tennis championships were played at the B. A. A., and De tiarmendia defeated G. R. Fearing, Jr., in a splendidly contested match.

LAWN TENNIS.

Larned, Foote, and Probably Chace Will Play in the English Chappionships,

It was rumored last week at Newton and confirmed here yesterday from the most re-liable source that Larnod, Foote, and probably Chace will all play in the English laws tennis championships at Wimbledon next July. and that Larned will also play in a number o the other hig tennis events there this spring. Although the absence of three of the best players in this country will leave a big hole in the ranks this season, American players will be rejoiced to hear that they will be represented abroad for the first time in the history of the sport by the most skilful player in the country. Not since 1890 has America had a first-class entry at Wimbledon, and then ex-Champlor 'Ollie" Campbell was far from in his best form, while his peculiar style of play was not well adapted to meeting the British experts.

Larned has planned to sail in about six weeks. Foote will sail in June, and Chace has also engaged passage for the latter part of June, but is not positive that he will go. Both he and Foote graduate from Yale this spring, and they cannot leave until after college closes. Both tre anxious to see the Yale crew row at Henley, and it is part of the plan to meet Larned there and then go to Wimbledon with him after the boat rares are over. The principal object of the trip, however, is a summer in Europe on theels, and Larned and Foote, as well as Chace, if he decides to go, will ride on the Continent together, starting immediately after the English tenuls championships are over. The bley-cling trip is experted to last until fail, and none of the three intends to return to America until Larned has planned to sall in about six weeks. of the three intends to return to America until after the tennis season is over, so there will probably be a wholesale defaulting of challenge probably be a wholeraic defaulting of challenge cups.

It is unfortunate for the plans of the West Newton tennis enthusiasts that Larned and Chace expect to go abroad, for they are planning for another international tournament this spring like that of last year, when Pim and Mahoney met the American cracks. They have secured the week of June 22, and Manager Harry Ayer is now in correspondence with several of the British experts, with the object of getting two or three of them to come over again this season. Asked last week at Newton about his plans for the spring, be would not tell how far they had progressed, but hinted that he had strong hopes of having some of the foreigners here this spring.

Ives and Garaler Begin Practice for the Maurice Daly has secured the consent of the best known amateurs to act as referees in the games in the tourney of the "International Trio," in this city next week. In all probability rville Oddie, Jr., the last man to win a nations championship trophy as an amateur, will refday to make the tourney games 600 points up, instead of 500.

Ives and Garnier both began their practice games yesterday. J. Byron Stark, winner of the receant inter-club honors in this city, played ives in the afternoon at Daly's Broadway Academy, lves, although he had tried the game only once before, played position so well that it demonstrated to the spectators that it will be easy for him to overcome the difficulties of the change of balk line from fourteen to eighteen inches. Ives played again last evening in this city, and Garnier went over to Daly's Brooklyn rooms to practise.

Ives had for an opponent last night Cal Foster, and the champion did not have to extend himself. Beston Horse Show Hoxes Put Up at Auc Bostos, March 23.—The auction sale of boxes for the Boston Horse blow, which opens two weeks from to-day, was held in Music Hall this afternoon. Society was largely represented, and the bidding was of a lively nature. The total amount realized was $15,005, and of this amount $5,000 was for premiums over the upset prices of the boxes. The largest amount paid for any one box was $150 and the lowest $110. Mrs. Jack wardiner paid $400 premium for a box located near the entrance to the ring.

Crew. HABTFORD, March 23 .- Henry S. Robinson, Yale, '89, who has been appointed to receive in this city subscriptions to the $10,000 fond for sending the Yale 'varsity crew to Henley, has so far collected $200 in subscriptions from resident alumni. The money is coming in slowly, although every alumnus has been invited to contribute. LINCOLNARIBE HANDICAP TO-DAY.

Richard Croker's American Is One of the Entries, but Has Not Been Backed There are about 240 days to the English flat There are about 240 days in the English flat racing season, which are divided among forty-eight different tracks. The season began yes-terday at Lincoln, which has three days; the next meeting will be at Liverpool, beginning March 26, the March racing ending with the Nottingham two days, which begin on the 30th. The Trial Stakes, of 200 sovereigns, one mile, and the Eltham Plate, 150 sovereigns, a six furlong dash, at wester weights, were the principal races yesterday, but none of the American horses was entered in those events. To-day the great event is the Lincolnapire Handicap of £2,000, run over the straight mile. Since 1800, when the four-year-old Vigo, with 104 pounds up, won from a field of thirteen starters, it has been an annual event in the racing world. Forty-three horses are eligible to start this year, including Richard Croker's Americus, who is in at 113 pounds. He does not figure in the list of probable starters in the London Sportsman of March 14, nor has the American been quoted in the advance betting in any of the English sporting journals received to date. These two facts betting in any of the English sporting journals received to date. These two facts would indicate that Americus will not be a starter. Sithough the situation may have changed since March 14. Nineteen were quoted in the betting on Saturday week. Clorane, 130 pounds, the top weight, and Gangway. 118 pounds, were the favoriters at 10 to 1. Amandier, 111, at 100 to 8: Hebron, 106, at 100 to 8: Court Bail, 102, at 100 to 7, and Lesteriin, 110, at 100 to 0. were next in demand, the odds against the remainder of the niseteen listed ranging from 20 to 1 against Easter Gift, 108, to 50 to 1 against Cliwyd, 112 pounds.

Probably because it is the opening race of the season, the turf prophets of the sporting Journals, who form a mighty host in London, are unusually diffident in expressing their views. Sir J. Blunded! Maple has both Gangway and Kirkconnel, 119, engaged, but Field states that the market movements indicate that Gangway is the best. The same journal states that Col. North has backed his three as a lot, and that he market movements indicate that Gangway is the best. The same journal states that Col. North has backed his three as a lot, and that he may start the entire "fact," Hebron, El Diablo, 108, and Clwyd. Amandier, it is said, will be the only starter from the Hothschild trio. Leaterlin has been trained in Ireland. Easter Gift, another Irish horse, having been leased by Capt. Machell, has received the final preparations at Newmarket, where he was brought on March 10. Clorane, who won the Royal Hunt Cun last season, is known to be in fine shape. Mornington Cannon, the leading jockey of the day in England, will ride the horse te-day, and he has been riding Clorane in his work at Lyddington during the week. Clorane and Gangways seem to be the choice of the turf prophets. Fred Taral, who rode Americus, then called Rey del Carreres, in his races here last autumn, believes he should have a good chance. "Americus is he fastest thora ties rever rode," said Taral, on Friday evening. "I have ridden Domino and Kingst would indicate that Americus will not be a Dimmock and His Trotters Have a Narrow Кокомо, ind., March 23.-W. W. Dimmock proprietor of the Palace Stables: Laundry Girl, 2:24%, by King Rene; Mary Ball, and other trotting horses, had a narrow escape from death Saturday. He had driven out to Deer Creek, and while eating dinner the barn in Creek, and while eating dinner the barn in which his horses were being fed took fire. While in the stable trying to rescue the animals the loft of the burning hay fell, burying Dimmook and the horses in the blasing mass. To escape through the open door was impossible. Another door was found after much difficulty, but that was firmly fastened and could not be opened. By that time every part of the barn was on fire. As the entire building was about to collapse the door was battered in by outside helpers and Dimmook was rescued from the flames. His clothing was nearly all burned off, and the hair and harness was burned from the horses.

Bright Outlook for the Newport Horse Nuwront, March 23.—Prescott Lawrence, treasurer of the Newport Horse Show Association, reports that between $4.000 and $5.000 have been subscribed for the meeting here next august. Besides, funds are daily coming in, and the committee is so much en-couraged that there is talk of further enlarging the plans. Owners of the horses at Boston New York, Philadelphia, and Chicago have stated their purpose to exhibit their animals. The programme will soon be issued.

Harvard's Men Practicing for the Team Mace.

CAMBRIDGE, March 23.-Trainer Lathrop today held one-mile run trials to select the Harvard quartet for the intercollegiate team race next Saturday. Grant did 4:37, running alone, next Saturday. Grant did 4:37, running alone. Williams's time was 4:42, finishing eight yards in front of Blakemore. Newell was out of form and did not run. He will be the fourth man for Harvard. Hollister, the crack half-miler who was to have gone to New York, is slek abed. It transpired to-day that Hoyt, '98, who went with the B. A. A. team to A thens, left the university in order to take the trip, and may not be allowed to come back to the institution. Hoyt's alisence is a great blow to Harvard's track prospects.

The Saddle Question.

The above is an illustration of the old style saddle. Fits like a glove—but a saddle should not fit like a glove. Just the reverse. When you ride a bicycle you want a seat, a cool seat—a seat with pads to receive the weight of the body and prevent pressure on the sensitive parts. The new CHRISTY ANATOMICAL SADDLE is built right, made from designs furnished by a medical authority. This illustration shows the new

THE ST. NICHOLAS RINK. To-day the Sheet of Ice Will He Open to

To-day the rink of the St. Nicholas Skating lub will be opened to the public, and hereafter, except on Mondays, the ice will be open to all. Besides the admission fee a small charge will be made for the use of a pair of skates. The St. Nicholas members have their own skates, and it is expected that many of the public will be likewise provided, yet 500 clamped pairs are ready for those who want to borrow them. There will be morning, afternoon, and evening skat-

Last night the smooth sheet of two-inch ice seemed quite in harmony with the whirling snow and winter aspect out-doors. Later on, when tulips and pansies are blooming in the when tuips and pansies are blooming in the park, the ice will have the attraction of novelty. The rink is never boxed up, so the atmosphere is always pure. The brine that flows through the pipes beneath the ice is always at a zero temperature, but no matter how the sun may be shining, all the windows and skylights, which are as numerous as in a photographer's studio, are always thrown open. The air is practically at the same temperature in the rink as outside. A hand will play afternoons and evenings. evenings.

Columbia's New Trainer Begins Work. Columbia's new trainer, Tom Chrystie, took charge of the track athletic team candidates yesterday afternoon.
